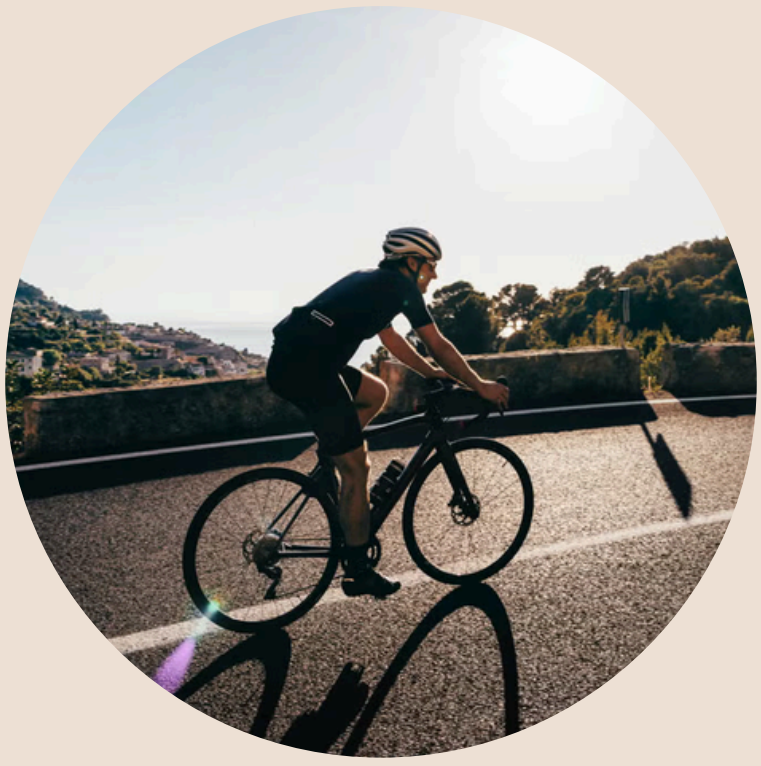
Sutton Cycling Tour Guide



Cycling Day Around Sutton

SUTTON NEST
SN

Café Yamabiko

- Location: 6A Rue Principale S, Sutton, QC J0E 2K0
- What it is: Specialty coffee roaster & café, small-batch ethically-sourced beans, friendly casual atmosphere. Great pour-over drinks
- Why stop: Morning caffeine boost and carbs before hitting the trail.

Boulangerie Abercorn Bakery

- Location: 15 Rue Thibault N, Abercorn, QC J0E 1B0
- What it is: Artisanal bakery offering baguettes, pastries, granola, house-made goods—well-rated (4.4/5)
- Why stop: Carb-fuel mid-ride or a treat to share.

Château Ste-Agnès

- Location: Sutton vineyard estate with château and chapel
- What it is: Historic vineyard (est. 1846) on scenic terraces, offers guided tours & tastings, plus event space .
- Why stop: Wine tasting amid impressive views.

Église historique de Glen Sutton

- Location: 1458 Chemin de la Vallée-Missisquoi, Sutton, QC J0E 2K0
- What it is: Historic Anglican church (circa 1877), community venue, concerts—charming heritage architecture .
- Why stop: Cultural pause & picturesque heritage moment.

Boulangerie Owl’s Bread (Mansonville)

- ocation: 428 Rue Principale, Mansonville, QC J0E 1X0
- What it is: French-style artisanal bakery making breads, croissants, sandwiches daily—popular with locals & travelers.
- Why stop: Grab a fresh snack or lunch in Mansonville.

Grange ronde de Mansonville (Round Barn)

- Location: 323 Route de Mansonville, Potton QC J0E 1X0
- What it is: Heritage round barn built 1911; three levels, unique architecture, one of seven left—now exhibition/market space
- Why stop: Photo op, local history, summer exhibits & rest.

Distillerie des Cantons de l’Est

- Location: Mansonville (corner of Peabody Rd & Route 243)
- What it is: Quebec organic whiskey distillery offering tastings; developing into a larger agro-tourist destination with tasting room & events .
- Why stop: Sample local spirits and enjoy agritourism experience.

Brome Lake Bicycle / Walking Path

- Location: Brome Lake area (~route along lake edge).
- What it is: Lakeside paved/shared-use trail ideal for scenic cycling or rest by the water.
- Why stop: Beautiful stretch for viewing lake, stretching legs, photo opportunities.

Domaine des Nobles Alpagas

- Location: Lac-Brome region (1474 chemin Macey, Sutton area)
- What it is: Alpaca farm offering guided tours, educational panels, gift boutique with alpaca fiber products
- Why stop: Unique animal interaction and learning—great break and shop.

The full trip is around 105 km!

Click on the Map to get the full Google Maps Directions

Sutton Cycling Tour Guide

Enjoy your adventure!

SUTTON NEST